Experience the pure adrenaline rush of undercover operations at a former CIA covert operations training facility while under the safe and secure command of battle-tested experts.

Escape from a desert ambush in a fast attack vehicle. Learn close-quarter battle techniques, pistol marksmanship and unarmed self-defense. Spend time on the track learning the evasive and contact driving maneuvers that save lives in kidnapping situations. And, face the ultimate challenge when someone at the camp is kidnapped and you have to plan and execute a hostage rescue operation.

It's a weekend spy fantasy.

"The family that shoots together—stays together. It's a great family adventure!"

Real quote from a mother who attended with her husband and three teens.

"Best (expletive censored) weekend I've ever had!"

What one of the teenagers had to say about Covert Ops.

DRIVING STAFF

GORDON EDWARDS has over 24 years of professional auto racing experience in several classes of vehicles. He has trained hundreds of security chauffeurs, law enforcement personnel and bodyguards in evasive driving. He is a former member of the Hollywood stuntman's association.

LARRY MAY is an experienced professional on and off road racer.

GREG POWELL is an experienced professional on and off road racer.

Where does Covert Ops take place?

Somewhere outside Tucson, Arizona. The facility features a shooting range, driving track, cafeteria, lounge, swimming pool, dojo, weight room and student rooms.

Do I get to fire a real gun?

In our three-day program, you'll fire both real, Smith & Wesson 9 mm weapons, and paintball weapons. In our two-day adventure, only paintball guns are used.

Do I need to be able to drive a car with manual (standard) transmission?

No. Our vehicles feature automatic transmissions. You should have a driver's license valid in your home country.

Do I need to be in great physical shape to participate?

No. The program is open to adults of all ages. You must only be in reasonably good health.

Will I stay in barracks?

Although officially known as "barracks", rooms at the facility resemble small dormitory rooms. Each room is equipped with a twin bed, desk, small dresser and lamp. You may be required to share a connecting bathroom with another Covert Ops participant. Pay phones are located near each barracks building. Upgraded lodging (motel rooms) are an option.

How is the food?

Breakfast, lunch and dinner is included in the Covert Ops package. Meals are served in a cafeteria located on site. While not gourmet dining, you will find a wide variety of food choices. (Beverages in the Officers' Lounge are at your own expense.)

Is Covert Ops just for men?

Absolutely not. The program is open to men and women. You should be in reasonably good health and have a valid driver's license.

Covert Ops Missions open to individuals are held several times per year. Call for dates.

Private training missions are available upon request to groups of 10 or more.
