About Your Captain

Tim Taylor is an accomplished naturalist and explorer with over 25 years of underwater experience. His discovery of Sherwood Forest Reef in the Dry Tortugas earned him acceptance into the Prestigious Explorers Club.

Tim's experience includes 18 years as a US Coast Guard Captain, numerous instructor ratings, underwater still and video expertise and extensive field work. He has hosted many noted marine specialists, including Dr. Sylvia Earle, Dr. Eugenie Clark, Dr. Jeff Carrier and Wes Pratt. He produced, shot and directed "The Florida Keys Sportsman", founded Scubaworld Online; one of the first scuba industry databases on the Internet, and has guided many world famous researchers and explorers on expeditions in the Bahamas, Cuba and the Florida Keys. The ocean and Key West are home for Tim, his 8 year old son Garrett and 6 year old daughter Brooke.

Details

"The wild spectacle is unlike any offered in the Caribbean. Instead of an organized shark feeding experience, our expeditions offer a unique chance to observe animals in a more natural environment."

- Capt. Tim Taylor

Life is either an incredible adventure or nothing at all.

The Adventure

MONDAY, DECEMBER 27

Check in at Safe Harbor Marina, Key West, Florida at 5 PM. Refreshments and appetizers served from 5 PM to 6 PM. Orientation and safety briefing followed by 8PM departure. Travel overnight to shark location 75 miles out.

TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY

Rendezvous with a commercial shrimp-fishing vessel. See first hand the process of bringing shrimp from the ocean to the market. Encounter the wild, untamed sharks that aggregate to feed off the shrimpers by-catch. It's not uncommon to see adult lemons, Caribbean reef, great hammerhead, sandbar, bull shark, tiger and nurse sharks. Great numbers of turtles, Goliath grouper and pelagic fish are also attracted to the feeding event.

FRIDAY, NEW YEAR'S EVE

Return to Key West. Watch the fireworks from the deck of the boat, or take the tender in to shore for Key West's famous New Year's Eve festivities.

NEW YEAR'S DAY

Stay onboard and watch football or depart Key West. Those unable to depart on January 1 can stay onboard until the morning of the 2nd.

Take advantage of a unique wildlife
photographic opportunity.
