

FLY THE LEGENDARY T-6 TEXAN...

Strap into the legendary plane known as “the pilot maker”. The North American T-6 was used to train generations of fighter pilots. Known by some as the Harvard or SNJ, the plane is waiting to give you a lesson in aerobatic flight.

Location

Our flights take off from Kissimmee Airport in Kissimmee, Florida. Kissimmee is a suburb of Orlando and is just a 30 minute drive from Orlando’s International Airport. Our hangar is just minutes from Disney World and the many tourist attractions of Orlando.

The Aircraft

The North American T-6 once served in more than 55 air forces around the world. Designed primarily for use as a trainer, the T-6 was also used in battle. It served in World War II, Korea and Vietnam. Some may know the plane by one of its other names. It’s sometimes called the SNJ, Harvard, Mosquito or T-Bird. The Texan also saw action in dozens of brush-fire wars around the Congo, Biafra, the Middle East, and throughout Latin America.

Frequently Asked Questions

What’s this cost? An incredible adventure which includes an hour of aerobatic instruction in the T-6 plus photos and videos is $795. Contact Incredible Adventures for details.

What are the requirements? You should be in reasonably good health and arrive prepared to sign a release of liability. To fly in the T-6, you must weigh less than 250 pounds. Minimum and maximum height and age requirements may also apply.

What should I wear? Dress in comfortable casual clothes. Please wear sturdy soled, closed toe shoes. No sandals or flip flops are permitted for safety reasons. Tennis shoes would be fine. A shirt with a collar will be more comfortable so the harness straps do not rub on your neck. Make sure you have a pair of sunglasses with you also.

Do I actually get to fly? Yes! Regardless of your experience, once airborne you will be doing the flying. Remember. The T-6 was designed as a trainer. An experienced flight instructor will be in the back seat with a full set of controls. He will handle the taxiing, take-off and landing but you get to do the rest with some coaching from your instructor

What if I’m a pilot? If you’re a pilot, you can log your time in the T-6 in your logbook. If you’re interested in complete flight training in the T-6, let us know.

What else should I know? Your flight package includes admission to the Kissimmee Air Museum located at the airfield. See the world’s only flying aero car and more...

When can I fly? Flights are available all year long and must be reserved in advance.
