The Planes

Extra 330 LX

In the 1980's, champion aerobatic pilot Walter Extra set out to design the perfect competition aircraft. Today, the German company he started produces some of the world's most popular aerobatic aircraft. The Extra 330 LX is capable of withstanding +/- 10 g's.

The Game Bird GB1

The all-new German-designed and American built Game Bird is light, fast, easy to fly and purpose built for aerobatic performance. The Game Bird is rated to withstand +/- 10 g's.

The L-39 Albatros

The Czech-made L-39 is a high-performance military jet trainer produced by Aero Vodochody. The single-engine, subsonic jet aircraft has been used by more than 30 air forces to prepare fighter pilots for air combat.
